

UNJPPI Privacy Policy

We are committed to protecting the privacy of your personal information.

Overview

The United Network for Justice and Peace in Israel and Palestine (UNJPPI) is committed to protecting the privacy of your personal information. Personal information is collected, used, maintained, and disclosed in compliance with the principles of UNJPPI's Privacy Statement, the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act \(PIPEDA\), and other applicable federal and provincial privacy legislation.

Our Commitment to Our Donors

We will not sell, share or trade our donors' names or personal information with any other entity, nor send mailings to our donors on behalf of other organizations.

This policy applies to all information received by UNJPPI, both online and offline, on any Platform ('Platform', includes the UNJPPI website and mobile applications), as well as any electronic, written, or oral communications. To the extent any donations are processed through a third-party service provider, our donors' information will only be used for purposes necessary to process the donation.

Online Event Registration

The UNJPPI website offers links to many different online tools to facilitate event registrations. These may include, but are not limited to: EventBrite (opens in a new tab), SurveyMonkey (opens in a new tab), and Google Forms (opens in a new tab).

When you register online for an event, we ask for some personal information. We use this information only for matters related to your registration and participation in the event, and to follow up about the event.

While we try our best to select trustworthy and reputable third-party tools, these services are not controlled or maintained by UNJPPI, and we cannot guarantee the privacy or security of any information you provide to these services. We recommend you review the privacy policy for each service before disclosing personal or sensitive information.

E-Newsletters

We use MailChimp to host and manage our e-newsletter service. When you subscribe to one of our e-newsletters, we ask for your name, a valid e-mail address, city, province and country. The residential information is so UNJPPI can create geographic subgroups and share news relevant to your location.

All newsletters have an option that allows you to cancel or modify your subscription preferences at any time. "Unsubscribe" requests are fulfilled promptly, and no further communications will be sent to you.

We WILL NOT make any personal information about our subscribers available to any third party except as required by law. MailChimp's privacy policy \(opens in a new tab\) outlines what specific information is gathered on their site and how that information is used.

Online Groups, Networks, and Blogs

UNJPPI website offers links to different online tools to facilitate communication with our members, adherents, volunteers, and interest groups. These range from simple blogs or groups to more sophisticated networks on Facebook.

While we try our best to select trustworthy and reputable third-party tools, these services are not controlled or maintained by UNJPPI, and we cannot guarantee the privacy or security of any information you provide to these services. We recommend you review the privacy policy for each service before disclosing personal or sensitive information.

Log Files, Tracking, and Cookies

UNJPPI collects and uses the information contained within an automatically generated log of all traffic on our website. UNJPPI's website is hosted by Netfirms and is subject to the Netfirms Privacy Policy \(https://bit.ly/3tSovCc\).

The data collected by Netfirms includes digital information (IP address, browser information and history, device information, meta data, certain provided social media identifiers, etc.).

Information about Netfirm's use of cookies and tracking technologies may be found here: <https://www.endurance.com/privacy/cookie-policy> Individual traffic patterns will not be disclosed to any third party except as required by law.

Changes to This Privacy Statement

UNJPPI may from time to time change this Privacy Statement as new services are added or old ones changed. Please review this statement regularly for updates